

Condolences and Memories of Clyde

February 09, 2016

I am old friend from back when we where in our 20s. i remember Clyde was fun loving and free spirit! Clyde, Myself and Warren Safford where always sharing some new mis-adventures together! I send my sympathies to his family! I did not even know he was living in Princeton all these years, it only shows you how fast life goes bye and how some times we do not pay attention to the simple things in life. RIP my dear friend! We all will take an example from you of a life well lived and regret that you did not have more time on this earth to share more adventures with you!

Clyde, you personified Nypro. I knew the first time I met you were someone special. You had that rare talent of hard work but with that special balance of helpfulness and humor. You always had a smile on your face; you loved Nypro and it's people- and we loved you. I was fortunate enough to call you a friend and a confidant. I will miss deeply

I want to thank each of you for your kindness and genuine outpouring of love. Clyde would be overwhelmed with appreciation. I am, as all of you are, shocked and devastated by his passing and will remain ever grateful for being part of his life.

I met Clyde when I was 6 years old and we married very young (I was only 20). We literally grew up together and throughout our eventful life remained the very best of friends and loved each other deeply in a way only we understood.

Ironically, just the other day we talked about the fact that we just passed the 50-year-mark of knowing each other and how much we've experienced. He made a comment that gives me great comfort today: "I've done more in 59 years than most have done in 90."

Clyde was very humble but by far the most talented and gifted mechanic ever. He was also the most curious and adventurous person I ever knew (his knick name was Christopher Columbus) and although private and quiet to most, loved people and could carry on a conversation with paupers and kings.

The gaping hole in my heart, as in all who loved him, will mend remembering him and talking about him and laughing together. He was one special guy.

God speed my dear Clyde. We all loved you more than you knew.

~ Paulette Magaw, Jefferson, Massachusetts

Knowing Clyde for 35+ years was such a blessing and a privilege. Ever steadfast, always having a huge grin and hug when we would meet; he was like a big brother to me throughout the years. Lending advice, support and a helping hand when we lived in MA and then providing love and happy memories when he visited our home in Texas...he was such a wonderful guy.

And to my dearest best friend, Paulette, our journey until we see him again will be one that he would smile upon. With sincere love; will miss you Uncle Chooch...Until we meet again..."Banner" xxoo

Dear Paulette, Cindy and I were so saddened to learn of Clyde's passing. I wish we'd had the opportunity to spend more time together. Clyde came into our lives just last Spring. We found out that he was looking for a motorhome and was interested in purchasing our 2005 Renegade as we were buying a new 2015 model. He drove down to Pennsylvania with me in the 2005 Motorhome to pick up the new 2015 model and he drove both so he could get a comparison. We talked a lot over the 10 hour drive and found out how much Clyde liked and followed NHRA drag racing.

He came to New England Dragway to watch us race at the NHRA National Event last June. He expressed a keen interest in drag racing so we invited him to come with us anytime to any event. When we asked him to go to Las Vegas to the NHRA National Event in October he changed all of his plans and drove our 2015 Motorhome and trailer with us to the West Coast.

Clyde spent 1 1/2 weeks with my Daughter who was drag racing her 1998 Firebird and my son who was her crew chief. Clyde helped them setup and race the car at the National Event in Las Vegas.

We knew Clyde for less than 1 year but feel like we knew him all of our lives. We miss him deeply and wish he was still racing with us. We are deeply sorry for the family's loss.

It's was such an honor to walk with greatness. Clyde was a great boss, friend, and the brother I never had. The travel, stories and fun we shared could fill this book X4. His thoughtfulness and caring will always remain in my heart. He was a devout NASCAR and NHRA race fan with whom I spent many enjoyable events with. His talents were endless. His motto would always be " the only rule was to have fun". To understand his passing would be from a quote from Richard Petty on the loss of his grandson Adam. "never place a question mark were god puts a period" RIP my friend.
